

Russian-Sino-Japanese Strategic Triangle

Relations between Russia, China and Japan fit into the logic of strategic triangle: each player recognizes its importance and Russia-centred relationships are affected by other bilateral relations.

Dr. Kireeva will speak about the recalibration of the triangle since 2014, when Russia's relations with the West deteriorated due to the Ukrainian crisis and it began pivoting to Asia. Dr. Kireeva will focus on Russia's relations with China and Japan within the strategic triangle framework.

Speaker: Dr. Anna Kireeva

Associate Professor, Department of Asian and African Studies
Moscow State Institute of International Relations

Date & time: 10:30-12:00, Tuesday 31 July 2018

Venue: Lecture Hall B, 4F,
International Academic Research Building,
Hongo Campus, The University of Tokyo

Hosted by: Graduate School of Public Policy(GraSPP) /
Contemporary China Research Base, Institute of Social Sciences (ISS)